PROPOSALS for Printing by SUBSCRIPTION.

I. A New Method of SHORT-HAND ; very different from, and far beyond any Thing that ever yet appear'd of that Nature. By JOHN BYROM, M. A. (lately Fellow of Trinity-College in Cambridge.) Mr. Byrom observing the great Use of Short-Hand to the Gentlemen of the Clergy, Law, or any Profession whatsoever, in Writing Sermons, common-placing, taking Tryals, copying Letters, &c. and that the best Methods yet known, whatever the Teachers of 'em may pretend, are very imperfect and arbitrary, has undertaken to publish a new Method, wherein that useful Art is brought to a most beautiful perfection ; being in the easy, regular manner in which he has contriv'd it, a Thing of great Service upon many valuable Occasions.

With equal Application, any one may learn a great deal sooner to write much safer and plainer by this, than they possibly can do by any other Method, (tho' there are no arbitrary Marks in it at all) which other Methods, even the very latest, so much abound with.

Any Gentleman or Lady may quickly teach themselves by Mr. Byrom's Book without difficulty; if any should occur, he obliges himself to assist the Subscribers without any farther Consideration.

This Method is recommended by ROBERT SMITH, L. L. D. Professor of Astronomy in Cambridge, and F. R. S. and by RALPH LEICESTER, Esq; of Gray's-Inn ; who say at the End of Mr. Byrom's Proposals that it answers the Character given of it therein, &c. And it has been shewn to several other good Judges, who have very much approv'd of it.

The Price is 1 Guinea, half to be paid down, and half upon Delivery. Subscriptions are taken in and Receipts given by Mr. Nicholson, at the Lobby in the House of Commons. Mr. Casley at the King's Library at Essex-House in Essex-street, near the Temple. Mr. Culpeper under the Royal-Exchange Cornhill ; and by the Author himself at Number 12. in Holborn-Court Gray's-Inn, who is ready to satisfy any Gentleman that the Thing is really what it pretends to, and very well deserves Encouragement.

II. A Course of Experimental Philosophy, in two Volumes in Quarto: With a great many Copper-Plates, curiously Engraven by the best Hands. By John Theophilus Desaguliers, L. L. D. F. R. S. Chaplain to his Grace the Duke of Chandos. Subscriptions are taken in by J. Senex over against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleetstreet; and W. Taylor in Pater-Noster-Row.

PROPOSALS.

I. The Book, after some unavoidable Delays, is now in the Press, and several Sheets are Printed off in Quarto, on a fine and beautiful Letter; and special Care is taken to avoid the Typographical Errors, that are too common in Mathematical Books. II. Every Subscriber is to pay One Guinea in Hand, and Half a Guinea more at the Delivery of the two Volumes in Sheets. III. Some Copies shall be Printed on Large Paper, the Price whereof is Three Guineas; of which Two Guineas are to be paid down in Hand, and One Guinea at the Delivery of the Book in Sheets. IV. The Names and Titles of the Subscribers shall be Printed at the Beginning of the Book.

III. The Second Volume of the Annals of the Reformation and Establishment of Religion; and other various Occurrences in the Church of England. Continued, from the Thirteenth Year of Queen Elizabeth, (when the first Volume ended) to the Twenty Third of her Reign, 1580. In which Period of Time there is little of the Ecclesiastical History of this Nation extant. By JOHN STRIPE, M. A.

The PROPOSALS.

I. This Book will contain above 170 Sheets, and shall be Printed on a good Paper and Letter. II. The Price to Subscribers shall be One Guinea in Quires, half of which to be paid down, and the Remainder on the Delivery of the Book. III. A small Number will be Printed on Large Paper, at One Guinea and a Half.

The Book is now in the Press, and shall, (God willing) be deliver'd, by Michaelmas next, to the Subscribers: Who are desir'd to send in, together with their Names, their Qualities and Places of Abode, that they may be prefix'd to the Book, as Encouragers of the Work. NB. The Impression of the first Volume being Sold off some Time ago, and now become very scarce; to accommodate such.

such Gentlemen as desire to have both Volumes, the first Volume will be speedily Reprinted, with very large and material Additions, for the further Improving and Illustrating the History of Religion, in those first Years of Queen Elizabeth. And wherein will be restor'd more than twenty Original Papers, left out in the first Edition thereof, which should have been inserted in the Appendix: With the Additions of divers more such like curious Manuscripts.

These Annals are a Continuation of the History of the Reformation; Written by Bishop Burnet. Who (in the Conclusion of his Third Volume) was pleas'd to recommend 'The unwearied Diligence of Mr. STRYPE, in carrying on so useful a Work.

The first Volume is propos'd upon the same Terms with the Second, and will be deliver'd to the Subscribers at the same Time.

Proposals are deliver'd, and Subscriptions taken in by Tho. Edlin, over against Exeter-Exchange in the Strand; and by most other Booksellers in London and the Country.
